

Addendum: Nefilim with dead “Parents”

Usually it would be impossible for a dead god to receive sacrifice. However, with a living heir their name is not quite as dead as it might otherwise be. Just as the Nefilim claim more of their parents dominion than they would be able to were their parent alive.

It is possible for a priest of your nation to sacrifice in the name of your parent. When used to assuage your Hubris, this will work. For all other purposes it will be recorded but will not have any noticeable effects.
